KS1 Spelling Quiz - Year 1 - The Sound oo (too) (Answers)

1. Spell the missing word: No ____ by the pool.

- fewd
- food
- fod
- fode

The word pool also has 'oo' but it doesn't make the same sound as 'food' or the other 'oo' sound which goes in the word 'book'. Therefore, there is a third sound for 'oo' but it isn't used as often as the other two sounds!

2. Spell the missing word: Look up at the stars and the ____.

- noom
- moan
- mone
- moon

The moon isn't made of cheese! It also goes around the Earth, not the other way round.

3. Spell the missing word: Can you take me to the ____?

- soo
- sue
- zoo
- zsoo

A zoo is different to a safari park; safari parks tend to have more space for the animals to roam.

4. Spell the missing word: The cow went ____.

- moo
- moe
- mew
- moew

Did you know cows only have teeth at the bottom of their jaw.

5. Spell the missing words: It was ____ ____ to release him into the wild.

- to soon
- two soon
- too soon
- too son

The animal in the picture is a sloth. Sloths are known for being very slow but they are great at climbing and swimming.

7. Spell the missing word: A tree has strong ____.

- woots
- roots
- ruoots
- rootes

Roots grow outwards but not in any particular direction. They help keep the tree in place and provide it with food, water and nourishment.

6. Spell the missing word: I have a knife, fork and ____.

- spoon
- spoewn
- spone
- spoone

Spoons are useful for soups and yoghurt.

8. Spell the missing word: Press the ____ button to eject the seat.

- boost
- bost
- booste
- doost

Spy movies have lots of fun gadgets and an ejector seat is just one of them!

9. Spell the missing word: Please ____ your favourite colour.

- choose
- chose
- choos
- choews

Many people get choose and chose confused. Try to remember that when you have two of 'o' you have the choice of the two, but when you have one 'o' then you have already chosen!

10. Spell the missing words: All his chickens have come home to ____.

- woost
- roost
- rooste
- wooste

This saying means someone will now have to deal with their actions. They may have done something wrong and now it is shown for everyone to see.
