KS1 Spelling Quiz - Year 2 - Spelling Review 1 (Answers)

1. For this you will need coloured ____ and a piece of paper.

- pencils
 pensils pencils pensuls

This spelling pattern looked at the 'il' sound when it made an 'al' sound instead.

3. Dolphins are the ____ creatures in the world!

- happiest happyest happyiest hapyiest

If you are changing the root word, like happy, and it ends in a 'y' - we replace the 'y' for an 'i'.

2. This little man is a garden ____.

- nome
 knome gnome nowme

This word has a silent 'g'.

4. The bird was ____ as it flew around the flower.

- huming
 humin hummin humming

It happens to be a hummingbird. The word 'hum' has a short vowel sound, so we need to double the last letter then add 'ing'.

5. I ____ seen one of these animals before.

- havent
- have'nt
- haven't
- havn't

The apostrophe replaces the missing 'o'.

6. Breaking his arm was a very ____ experience.

- panefall
- painful
- painfal
- painfull

By adding the suffix 'ful' we are saying that he was full of pain!

7. They hung my painting in a ____.

- gallery
- gallary
- galary
- galery

You can see plenty of modern art at the Tate Modern in London and admission is free.

8. This is the ____ cat in the whole world!

- sadest
- saddest
- saddist
- sadist

We need to add 'd' then 'est' onto the word 'sad'.

9. I ____ pass that sign if I were you!

- wooldnt
- wouldnt
- wouldn't
- would'nt

Here we are joining the words would and not together but erasing the 'o'.

10. Your ____ won't get lost in this train ____.

- child and stashun
- child and stasion
- childe and stasion
- child and station

The end of station sounds like 'shun' but is spelt 'tion'.
